Ladies and Gentlemen, this is the Captain of Thought Air Flight # 375.
The mind we were attempting to reach is fogged in.
All connecting flights in or out have been canceled.
Since we were already in the holding pattern when the mind fog occurred, we will continue to circle and Hope for an opening.
We are sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused you and Thank You for flying Thought Air.
